• PICK UP A FAIR MAP SEPARATELY •

FYI

ATM

There are ATM's in the bank on Third Street and at the Fair Grounds/Main Gate entrance.

BAG & PACKAGE CHECK

Don't want to carry your purchases around all day? There is FREE BAG & PACKAGE CHECK in the Schoolhouse on Main Street near the corner of First Street.

GUEST SPOT

Stop by the Guest Spot on Main Street and see who's in. You might run into garden designer Jon Carloftis, or party planner Tara Wilson, or one of our guest presenters from Columbus. We've made this central spot available for presenters to have a place to go and relax and meet fair visitors. It's also a good place to drop off surveys - plus there's wi-fi available for mobile facebook uploads of your great finds.

MEETING PLACES

The Pumpkin Tower on the Village Green and the church at the corner of Market & Fourth streets are both good meeting places if you get separated from your party. Want to cool off?

Relax in the air-conditioned comfort of the church. Need a break? Stop by the La-Z-Boy Break Station in the Country Living sponsor tent on Market Street, near row B, to enjoy a little rest.

PHOTO BOOTH

Stop by the Country Living Photo Booth on Second Street next to the Country Living General Store and have your fair photo taken. Who knows? You just might wind up in the pages of Country Living next year!

RESTROOMS

Air-conditioned restroom trailers are located behind the church at Fourth & Market streets. Follow the brick path. Portable restrooms are located by the Museum and Bridge near the Main Gate.

SPECIAL-NEEDS SCOOTERS

Scooters are available for rent outside the gatehouse entrance off Main Street.

SHIPPING, DELIVERY & PORTER SERVICES

Need your items shipped home? Shipping and delivery service is available in the Fair Information Office on Main Street. Need help getting large items to your vehicle? Porters with large carts are located at the gate next to the church on Fourth Street to help you. You may drive up to this gate to pick up large items.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

You can purchase specially discounted subscriptions at the Country Living Subscription building on Second Street, the Fair Information Office on the Village Green, in tents near both entrances, and at the Subscription tent on Fourth Street by the church. Look for the big subscription banners.

The Ohio Historical Center Museum will be open FREE to fairgoers all three days of the fair. Fairgoers can enter across the bridge by the caboose. There is a charge for the special "CONTROVERSY" exhibit.

Visit countryliving.com/fair for fair videos, photos, and more!

PLEASE WATCH YOUR STEP AS YOU WALK AROUND THE FAIR.

Although care has been taken to ensure your enjoyment, this is an outdoor event in a charming older village. The paths are not paved and the grass/ground may be uneven in spots.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL

CountryLiving

FAIR

2011

September 16-17-18

Ohio Village - Columbus, Ohio

Hours: Friday, Saturday & Sunday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Early birds can enter at 8:30 a.m. on Friday and/or Saturday

Hello! And welcome to the sixth annual Country Living Fair! We've brought together more than 200 of our favorite antiques dealers, crafters, and artisans for a weekend of great shopping, free seminars and demonstrations, and more.

We're back at Columbus's Ohio Village with some familiar faces: Country singer Cooper Boone will again be performing and hosting a cooking demo and Country Living's own Contributing Food Editor, Cheryl Slocum, will prepare the perfect fall picnic. We're also delighted to welcome several new entertaining, home, and gardening, and food experts, including event planner

Tara Wilson, garden designer Jon Carloftis, and the stars of The Fabulous Beekman Boys, Josh Kilmer-Purcell and Brent Ridge. You'll find plenty of places to grab lunch or a treat, and the Harvest Market offers up fresh local produce and gourmet foods. Check out the daily schedule inside for more about events and activities throughout the weekend. And don't forget to stop by the Country Living General Store to say hello to me and my staff. We're so glad you decided to join us!
